LIST OF CASUALTIES.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Feb. 8.

B. A. PAUL sends to this Bureau the following:

ON THE RAPIDAN, Saturday Evening, Feb. 6.

A cavalry force supported by infantry, moved forward this morning to reconnoitre the enemy's position.

Gen. KILPATRICK, with two brigades, commanded respectively, First Brigade by Brig.-Gen. DAVIES and Second Brigade, (Brig.-Gen. CUSTER's.) by Colonel SAWYER, First Vermont Cavalry, and Lieut. KELLY's (late RANSOM's) light battery moved from the vicinity of Stevensburgh to a fording place on the Rapidan, about two miles below Germania Mills, called Culpepper Ford.

At about midday the command crossed the river without opposition, the only force on duty; there being six of HAMPTON's troopers, two of whom were captured. Gen. KILPATRICK passed up the river to the Germanna and Fredericksburgh Plank-road. Upon reaching the Orange Court-house Pike, moved up toward Robertson's Tavern, or Locust Grove, where he is now encamped for the night.

At about the same hour this morning the Second Corps, under command of Maj.-Gen. WARREN, moved forward to Morton's ford and vicinity. At this point one brigade of Gen. HAYES' division crossed and succeeded in capturing thirty-eight of the enemy's infantry pickets at this point. The enemy opened with artillery upon portions of this corps, but without doing much harm, the troops on the right bank being under the bluffs, which are quite high, and the balance of the force was well covered. During the day portions of the Third and Sixth Corps were advanced to within supporting distance.

The First Division of Cavalry, under Gen. MERRITT, at about the same time moved forward on the upper Rapidan, meeting with only slight resistance. This command was supported by troops from the First Corps. The rebel infantry pickets at MORTON's ford seemed rather pleased than otherwise at the idea of being captured. As Gen. HAYES crossed the river the picket there was being relieved. After firing one volley over the heads of our men, both the relief and old picket surrendered. some of the pickets report that last night the enemy's pickets on the river fired off their guns, and bid our pickets "good bye." The roads are in a horrible condition—the troops in excellent spirits.

The Third Division of the Second Corps had a severe skirmish last evening just across the river. The corps under Gen. CALDWELL, Gen. WARREN being unwell, moved to Morton's Ford yesterday morning. The enemy could be seen in some force in the works on the opposite bank; but after a consultation it was resolved to cross. Battery A, First Rhode Island Artillery, Capt. ARNOLD, was accordingly placed in position to cover the movement, and the Third Brigade of the Third Division, commanded by Gen. OWENS, was selected to take the initiative, and following the lead of Gen. HAYES and OWENS waded the river where the water was breast-deep, exposed to a galling fire from the enemy's rifle pits. REYNOLDS' Battery kept up such a constant shower of shells that the enemy were somewhat intimidated, and in a few minutes the whole brigade, consisting of the One Hundred and Twenty-sixth New-York, Thirty-ninth New-York, One Hundred and Eleventh New-York and First Delaware Regiments had reached the opposite bank and, capturing a party of twenty-eight sharpshooters, representing Georgia, Virginia and Mississippi regiments, succeeded in obtaining a good position. The enemy's position at this time being diagonally across and to the right of the road leading from the Ford, the brigade formed in line of battle to the left of the road fronting the enemy's position.

At about 12 o'clock M., the First Brigade, commanded by Col. CARROLL, of the Eighth Ohio, and composed of the Fourteenth Indiana, Seventh Virginia, Fourth and Eighth Ohio Regiments, crossed to support the Third Brigade. A desultory firing was kept up until near 5 o'clock, when, it appearing that the enemy was concentrating troops for an advance in force, the Second Brigade, commanded by Col. POWERS, was ordered across. Just as the sun was sinking behind the Blue Ridge the enemy attempted a flank movement and an advance in force, both of which movements were gallantly repulsed. The Second Brigade, composed largely, it is said, of conscripts, for a few minutes got into an unfortunate position.

The regiments of the command, particularly the Fourteenth Connecticut, suffered terribly; volley after volley was poured into their ranks, and the men were swept down in great numbers. Night fortunately spread its protecting mantle over the command, under the cover of which the necessary dispositions were made to hold the position.

During the night, in accordance with a general plan, the division recrossed to the left bank of the Rapidan without molestation. The division lost in this affair about two hundred men, of whom six are all that are known positively to have been killed. A Lieutenant and five men were captured, and the balance were wounded. The joyous songs of the companions of these sufferers, sang while dragging themselves through the mud a few minutes ago, wending their way to camp, are still ringing in my ears, and one can hardly realize that these men have just come out of a deadly strife.

Here is as complete a list of the wounded as can now be made up:

It has been satisfactorily ascertained that the main body of LEE's army is between Gordonsville and Orange Court-House. Citizens residing within the enemy's lines, say that LEE expects to have forty-five thousand conscripts added to his army by the first of March, or soon after, which will swell his force to between eighty thousand and ninety thousand men. All business is to be suspended to fill up the army, and from fifteen thousand to twenty thousand mechanics, now in Richmond, will be forced to shoulder a musket, and take part in what the rebel leaders expect will be the final struggle. The enemy are straining every nerve to put an effective force in the field by the Spring. To this end ten men out of every one hundred in HAMPTON's command have been sent home on thirty days' furlough to enable them to obtain horses. The Conscription Act is being everywhere thoroughly enforced; indeed, the enrolling officers are not very particular about the letter of the law, but they act up to its spirit, and notify persons who are legally exempt if within a few months they would be liable to perform military duty.

REVISION OF THE REVENUE LAWS.

Secretary CHASE has decided upon measures to bring order out of the confusion which now exists in the law as to external revenue and commerce, and to procure the establishment of a system commensurate with the vast increase of commerce since the main parts of the present law were passed in 1799. He has appointed CHARLES P. KIRKLAND, AUGUSTUS SCHELL and GROSVENOR P. LOWRY, Esqs., of New-York, Commissioners to act in conjunction with EDWARD JORDAN, the Solicitor of the Treasury, and J. F. BAILEY, Esq., the secret traveling agent of the department, to revise, codify and amend the revenue system. The New-York Chamber of Commerce has also been invited to appoint a committee to aid in the work, so that the interests of both the Government and the merchants shall have the fairest consideration.

DISPATCHES TO THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Feb. 8.

CORRESPONDENCE RESPECTING EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS.

It appears from official documents that the commission of Gen. HITCHCOCK of Dec. 16, authorized him to confer with Gen. BUTLER, and designated him as an agent to procure the exchange of soldiers and officers upon terms not conflicting with the position of the department relative to colored soldiers, nor surrendering men without just equivalent, man for man, officer for officer. Subsequently, he was directed to exchange, first, those who had been longest confined, and to waive for the time the consideration of the question of parole and excess of rebel prisoners in our hands. He was allowed also to exchange colored men in civil employment for men in civil employment captured by our forces. On the 25th of December, Gen. BUTLER sent forward by Assistant Commissioner MULFORD, 502 prisoners from Point Lookout, asking in exchange for a similar number, and leaving in abeyance all existing differences, with assurances that their prisoners in our hands were well cared for, and suggestions looking to the immediate exchange of convalescent or disabled prisoners. In communications of the same date he asks for the exchange of ALFRED F. BENGLE, of the Sanitary Commission, confined in Castle Thunder, the whereabouts and condition of Lieut. E. H. MASON and private JOHN WOLLAM, of Ohio regiments, and inquires into the proposition covering the cases of the officers and crews of the steamers Emily and Arrow, captured by the rebels last May.

Commissioner OULD reiterates, in a note to Maj. MULFORD, a willingness to exchange all prisoners. The excess on either side to be on parole. He says: "This is the provision of the cartel, and we can accept nothing less. Unless this is the distinct understanding, no equivalent will be delivered to you for any Confederate officers and soldiers whom you may hereafter bring to City Point. In the hope that such is the understanding, I have directed that a greater number than the total of your delivery shall be sent to you."

In another communication, Gen. HITCHCOCK is reminded that by the Presidential proclamation, Gen. BUTLER is under the ban of outlawry, and that while his Government cannot prescribe what agents the United States shall employ, self-respect requires that the Confederate Government refuse to treat with a person so obnoxious, and that Gen. BUTLER's agency cannot therefore be recognized, or his person protected by a flag of truce.

Gen. BUTLER returned the note, and said in reply: "No right of declaration of outlawry by those authorities of any officer or soldier of the United States can be admitted, or for a moment regarded by the Government of the United States, as it certainly will not be by the persons upon whom such intimidation is attempted." He informs ROBERT OULD that unless his flag of truce is respected, all further communication by flag-of-truce between those authorities and ours must cease.

On the 12th of January, Gen. BUTLER writes again asking for an exchange of the lists of prisoners and of deaths, and promising the making up of monthly lists.

PRISONERS DECLARED EXCHANGED.

Commissioner OULD declares exchanged all prisoners heretofore held by the Union authorities, whether officers, soldiers or civilians, received at City Point before Jan. 1, and all officers and men of the Vicksburgh capture who reported for duty at Enterprise, Miss., prior to Nov. 14, 1863; also, all officers and men of the Vicksburgh capture belonging to the First Tennessee Artillery; Capt. IVES, of the Tenth Massachusetts, and Capt. READ, of the Third Ohio Volunteers, are to be ironed and sent to Salisbury and put to hard labor, in retaliation for the similar treatment of two Captains captured by BURNSIDE, and now at Johnson's Island.

AN AMENDMENT TO THE ENROLLMENT BILL.

In the House, to-day, an amendment to the Senate Enrollment Bill was adopted as a substitute for one of the original sections, which forever provides that any person drafted into the military service may, before the time fixed for his appliance at the draft rendezvous, furnish an acceptable substitute, subject to such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War. If such substitute is not liable to draft, the person furnishing him shall be exempt from the draft during the time for which said substitute is not liable to draft, not exceeding the term for which he was drafted; and if such substitute is liable to draft, the name of the person furnishing him shall be liable to draft in filling future quotas.

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Feb. 8.

THE ELECTIVE FRANCHISE TO PERSONS OF AFRICAN DESCENT.

Mr. SUMNER, of Massachusetts, (Union,) presented petitions from persons of African descent, praying for the privilege of the elective franchise. Referred to Select Committee on Freedom and Slavery.

Mr. SUMNER said he had presented a similar petition in the last Congress before the rebellion, which was referred to the Committee then known as the Harper's Ferry Investigating Committee, of which JOHN Y. MASON, now a rebel, was chairman, who moved that the paper should be returned to the Senator presenting it. That resolution now remains upon the records unacted upon. He would say now, that it was natural that one, who was then preparing to be a rebel, should deny colored men their rights as citizens.

RE-ELECTION OF MR. GRIMES.

Mr. HARLAN, of Iowa, (Union,) presented the credentials of Mr. GRIMES, Senator elect from Iowa.

COMPENSATION FOR WAR LOSSES.

Mr. DAVIS, of Kentucky, (Dem.,) presented a petition from citizens of Kentucky, praying for compensation for losses incurred by rebel invasion. Laid over.

Mr. POMEROY offered the resolutions of the State of Kansas, memorializing Congress to indemnify citizens for losses sustained by rebel raids. Referred to the Military Committee.

BOUNTIES.

Mr. WILSON, of Massachusetts, (Union,) presented a petition from the volunteers who enlisted in the United States in the Autumn of 1862, praying for the bounty of $25 according to the act approved July 17, 1862. Referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. HENDRICKS, of Indiana, (Dem.,) introduced a bill authorizing a Special Session of the United States District Court for the District of Indiana. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

REPEAL OF THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAWS.

Mr. SUMNER introduced a bill to repeal all laws for the rendition of fugitive slaves. Also a bill to secure equality before the law in the Courts of the United States, providing against the exclusion of any witness on account of color. Referred to the Select Committee on Freedmen and Slavery.

ENABLING ACT FOR COLORADO AND NEVADA.

Mr. DOOLITTLE, of Wisconsin, (Union,) introduced a bill to enable the people of Nevada and Colorado to form Constitutions and State Governments, which was referred to the Committee on Territories.

THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT AND SLAVERY.

Mr. SUMNER, of Massachusetts, (Union) introduced the following resolution:

1. Resolved, That, in order to determine the duties of the National Government at the present moment, it is of the first importance that we should see and understand the real character of the contest which has been forced upon the United States, for a failure truly to appreciate this contest must end disastrously in a failure of those proper efforts which are essential to the reëstablishment of unity and concord; that, recognizing the contest in its real character, as it must be recorded by history, it will be apparent beyond controversy that this is not an ordinary rebellion, or an ordinary war, but that it is absolutely without precedent, differing clearly from every other rebellion and every other war, inasmuch as it is an audacious attempt, for the first time in history, to found a wicked Power on the corner-stone of Slavery; and that such an attempt having this single object—whether regarded as rebellion or as war—is so completely penetrated and absorbed, so entirely filled and possessed by Slavery, that it can be justly regarded as nothing else than the huge impersonation of this crime, at once rebel and belligerent, or, in other words, as Slavery in arms.

2. Resolved, That, recognizing the unquestionable identity of the rebellion and of Slavery, so that each is to the other as another self, it becomes plain that the rebellion cannot be crushed without crushing Slavery, as Slavery cannot be crushed without crushing the rebellion: that every forbearance to the one is a forbearance to the other and every blow at the one is a blow at the other; that all who tolerate Slavery, tolerate the rebellion, and all who strike at Slavery, strike at the rebellion; and that, therefore, it is our supremest duty, in which all other present duties are contained, to take care that the barbarism of Slavery in which alone the rebellion has its origin and life, is so utterly trampled out that it can never spring up again anywhere in the rebel and belligerent region; for leaving this duty undone nothing is done, and all our blood and treasure have been lavished in vain.

3. Resolved, That in dealing with the rebel war the National Government is invested with two classes of Rights—one the Rights of Sovereignty, inherent and indefeasible everywhere within the limits of the United States, and the other the Rights of War, or Belligerent Rights, which have been superinduced by the nature and extent of the contest; that by virtue of the Rights of Sovereignty, the rebel and belligerent region is now subject to the National Government as its only rightful Government bound under the Constitution to all the duties of sovereignty, and by special mandate bound also "to guarantee to every State a republican form of government, and to protect it against invasion;" that, by virtue of the rights of war, this same region is subject to all the conditions and incidents of war, according to the established usages of Christian nations, out of which is derived the familiar maxim of public duty, "Indemnity for the past and security for the future."

4. Resolved, That in seeking the restoration of the States to their proper places as members of the Republic, so that every State shall enjoy again its constitutional functions and every star on our national flag shall represent a State, in reality as well as in name, care must be taken that the rebellion is not allowed, through any negligence or mistaken concession, to retain the least foothold for future activity, or the least germ of future life; that, whether proceeding by the exercise of Sovereign Rights or of Belligerent Rights, the same precautions must be exacted against future peril; that, therefore, any system of "reconstruction" must be rejected which does not provide by irreversible guarantees against the continued existence or possible revival of Slavery, and that such guarantees can be primarily obtained only through the agency of the National Government, which to this end must assert a temporary supremacy, military or civil, throughout the rebel and belligerent region, of sufficient duration to stamp upon this region the character of freedom.

5. Resolved, That, in the exercise of this essential supremacy of the National Government, a solemn duty is cast upon Congress to see, that no rebel State is prematurely restored to its constitutional functions, until within its borders all proper safeguards are established, so that loyal citizens, including the new-made freedmen, cannot at any time be molested by evil-disposed persons and especially that no man there may be made a slave; that this solemn duty belongs to Congress under the Constitution, whether in the exercise of rights of sovereignty or rights of war; and that, in its performance, that system of "reconstruction" will be found the best—howsoever it may be named—which promises most surely to accomplish the desired end, so that Slavery, which is the synonym of the rebellion, shall absolutely cease throughout the whole rebel and belligerent region, and the land which it has maddened, impoverished and degraded, shall become safe, fertile, and glorious from assured emancipation.

6. Resolved, That, in the process of "reconstruction," it is not enough to secure the death of Slavery throughout the rebel and belligerent region only; that experience testifies against Slavery wherever it exists, not only as a crime against humanity, but as a disturber of the public peace and the spoiler of the public liberties, including the liberty of the press, the liberty of speech and the liberty of travel and transit; that obviously, in the progress of civilization, it has become incompatible with good government, and especially with that "republican form of government" which the United States are bound to guarantee to every State; that from the outbreak of this rebel war, even in States professing loyalty, it has been an open check upon patriotic duty and an open accessory to the rebellion, so as to be a source of unquestionable weakness to the national cause; that the defiant pretensions of the master, claiming the control of his slave, are in direct conflict with the paramount rights of the National Government; and that, therefore, it is the further duty of Congress, in the exercise of its double powers, under the Constitution, as guardian of the national safety, to take all needful steps to secure the extinction of Slavery, even in States professing loyalty, so that this crime against humanity, this disturber of the public peace, and this spoiler of the public liberties shall no longer exist anywhere to menace the general harmony; that civilization may be no longer shocked; that the constitutional guaranty of a republican form of government to every State may be fulfilled: that the rebellion may be deprived of the traitorous aid and comfort which Slavery has instinctively volunteered; and that the master, claiming an unnatural property in human flesh, may no longer defy the National Government.

7. Resolved, That, in addition to the guarantees stipulated by Congress, and as the cap-stone to its work of restoration and reconciliation, the Constitution itself must be so amended as to prohibit Slavery everywhere within the limits of the Republic; that such a prohibition, leaving all personal claims, whether of slave or master, to the legislation of Congress and of the States, will be in itself a sacred and inviolable guarantee, representing the collective will of the people of the United States and placing Universal Emancipation under the sanction of the Constitution, so that Freedom shall be engraved on every foot of the national soil, and be woven into every star of the national flag, while it elevates and inspires our whole national existence, and the Constitution, so often invoked for Slavery, but at last in harmony with the Declaration of Independence, will become, according to the holy aspirations of its founders, the sublime guardian of the inalienable right of every human being to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; all of which must be done in the name of the Union, in duty to humanity, and for the sake of permanent peace.

THE CONSTITUTION.

Mr. ANTHONY, of Rhode Island, (Union,) introduced a joint resolution repealing a joint resolution to amend the Constitution of the United States, as follows:

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled, That the joint resolution to amend the Constitution of the United States, approved March 2, 1861, be and is hereby repealed.

Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. ANTHONY, of Rhode Island, (Union,) said that God could make even the wrath of man to praise Him. The repeal of the resolution would gain for us not only the favor of the world, but of Heaven. This would open a certain way for the downfall of Slavery. If he had been asked, a few years ago, whether he would have voted to batter down the walls of Sumter, or invade Virginia, he would have answered No. Yet more had been done, because they had made it necessary who had entered into this unholy rebellion. The walls of Sumter had been battered down and Virginia invaded.

Mr. SAULSBURY, of Delaware, (Dem.,) said when the resolutions and petitions of the Senator from Massachusetts on this subject were presented, he had moved their postponement. But we had about as much of the negro as we could bear. He moved that the whole batch go together.

Mr. ANTHONY rejoined that if the Senator from Delaware ever made a speech that was not full of the negro, he was not aware of it. [Laughter.]

RANK OF CHAPLAIN IN THE ARMY.

Mr. COWAN, of Pennsylvania, (Union,) introduced a bill defining the rank of Chaplain in the army. Referred.

THE EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS.

A message was received from the President inclosing a communication from the Secretary of War, transmitting the correspondence with the rebel authorities as to the exchange of prisoners.

BORDER STATE ELECTIONS.

On motion of Mr. POWELL, of Kentucky, (Dem.,) the Secretary of War was requested to communicate information as to the orders given to the Provost-Marshal in regard to the elections in the several border States.

THE RECIPROCITY TREATY.

A message was received from the President of the United States inclosing a communication from the Secretary of State, declining to transmit the correspondence in relation to the Reciprocity Treaty between the United States and the Sandwich Islands.

THE ENLISTMENT BILL.

The bill to promote enlistments then came under consideration, with the preceding amendment of Mr. HENDERSON to limit the freedom of the slave recruit to the loyal States alone.

Mr. CARLILE, of Virginia, (Union,) said: In these unhappy times, when good men are rendered odious and bad men popular, when great men are made little and little men great, he who would serve his country best must be above personal considerations.

He paid a glowing tribute to the State of Virginia, and said that in her debasement she challenged our admiration for the gallantry of her sons on many an honorable field. He did not believe there would be an early cessation of hostilities, nor did he believe that the starvation, on which the rebels had been kept alive for three years, was likely to result in an early death. [Laughter.] The Union could never be restored by the mere exercise of coercive power by the Federal Government. We have reached a point where the nature and character of this struggle must be set definitely. Was this war an exercise of the Constitutional power of the Government to put down a rebellion against its authority, or was it a war of the Northern States against the Southern? If the former, we drew all our power from the Constitution. If the latter, it is a war by the States against the Constitution, leaving the States responsible alone to the judgment of the civilized world for the manner in which the war has been conducted. He had always maintained that the exercise merely of the coercive powers of the Government never would restore the Union. We should never inaugurate a measure which would render death preferable to reunion. We should distinguish between those in arms and those who were willing and anxious for a connection with us. He would not in his legislative capacity interfere with Slavery in the States, but as a military commander he would use slaves as he would a horse or a wagon abandoned by the enemy. We would be obliged to conquer our own prejudices before we could conquer the South. A war of conquest was always interminable, and the position of the seceded States rendered the Union as desirable to them as to us. We have for three years resorted to the coercive powers of the Government. Why not change our policy a little and leave all these irritating subjects to the military department, where they properly belong.

On motion of Mr. DOOLITTLE, the further consideration of the bill was postponed.

On motion of Mr. LANE, of Kansas, (Union,) the Senate went into Executive Session, and shortly afteward adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Feb. 8.

HOUSE PRIVILEGES TO DEPARTMENTAL SECRETARIES.

Mr. PENDLETON, of Ohio, (Dem.,) introduced a bill providing that the Secretaries of the Executive Departments may occupy seats on the floor of the House of Representatives. Referred to a Select Committee.

REPEAL OF THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW.

Mr. SPAULDING, of Ohio, (Union,) introduced a bill to repeal the Fugitive Slave Law. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRY.

Mr. ORTH, of Indiana, (Union,) introduced a bill which was referred to the Judiciary Committee, to create a new department, to be called the Department of Industry. It provides for a Secretary of Industry, who will be a Cabinet officer, and embraces four bureaus, namely, Agriculture, Freedman's Affairs, Mines and Minerals, and Immigration.

PASSAGE OF GOODS IN TRANSITU.

Mr. JULIAN, of Indiana, (Union,) introduced a bill to repeal the acts of Congress of 1845 and 1846, authorizing the transportation of goods in original packages through the United States to Canada, or from Canada to the United States, for foreign transportation. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

INDEMNIFICATION FOR INDIAN LOSSES.

Mr. KINNEY, delegate from Utah, introduced a proposition with a view to compensate the people of that territory for losses sustained by Indian depredations.

VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.

Mr. DAWES, of Massachusetts, (Union,) from the Committee on Elections, reported a resolution declaring that neither Mr. KITCHEN nor Mr. MCKENZIE is entitled to a seat as Representative from the Seventh Congressional District of Virginia. The resolution lies over for future consideration.

Mr. ARNOLD introduced a bill for the improvement of Chicago Harbor by a tax on commerce. Referred to the Committee on Commerce.

THANKS TO SANITARY LADIES.

Mr. BROWN, of Wisconsin, (Dem.,) offered a resolution tendering the thanks of the House to the noble women who, as members of the Sanitary Fairs and Societies and Christian Commissions, have contributed their labor and means for the relief of our soldiers, and pledging the means of the Government to put down the rebellion, but refraining from all to which the public faith is not already pledged, &c.

Mr. STEVENS, of Pennsylvania, (Union,) moved an addition, that every member of the House pay $50 to the Sanitary Commission. [Laughter.]

A debate rising, the resolution goes over.

THANKS TO GEN. SHERMAN AND OFFICERS.

Mr. COBB, of Wisconsin. (Union,) introduced a joint resolution, which was passed, tendering the thanks of Congress to Gen. W. T. SHERMAN, and the officers and men under his command, for gallant conduct.

Mr. BLAIR, of Western Virginia, (Union,) offered resolutions deprecating the present civil war, and quoting largely from the speeches of JEFF. DAVIS and ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS, those persons having asserted that a reconstruction of the Union was impossible, and uttered language in bitter denunciation of the people of the North.

Mr. MALLORY, of Kentucky, (Dem.,) inquired whether objection could be made to the continued reading of the resolutions because of their length.

The Speaker said if there was such a rule, the gentleman would please point it out.

POLITICAL RESOLUTIONS.

WILLIAM J. ALLEN, of Illinois, (Dem.,) wished to know if it was in order to quote stump speeches in the preparation of resolutions brought before the House.

The Speaker said the reading of the resolutions was in order.

The Clerk finished the reading of the resolutions, which declare any attempt on the part of the Government to conciliate the leaders of the present rebellion or compromise the question involved, would rob the gallows of its due, and humiliate and bring into utter contempt this Government in the estimation of the civilized world; that every State which was ever a State is still in the Union, and when the rebellion is put down, each seceded State, so called, shall have the same rights, privileges and immunities under the Constitution as heretofore, excepting so far as relates to the holding of slaves, and which is affected by the President's Emancipation Proclamation of January, 1863. The resolutions also utterly repudiates the views as defined by some gentlemen, that the seceding States have become a foreign power.

Mr. ELDRIDGE, of Wisconsin, (Dem.,) wished to know whether it was proper to include rebel stump speeches in resolutions brought before the House.

The Speaker said he was not aware of any such rule.

The House, there being only twelve in the affirmative, refused to second the demand for the previous question on the passage of the resolutions, and they lie over for future consideration.

Mr. BROWN, of Western Virginia, offered a resolution, which was objected to, declaring that it was the duty of all loyal citizens and the Government that the war should be prosecuted till our loyal brethren in the South shall be rescued from military despotism.

THE ENROLLMENT BILL.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the Senate Enrollment Bill.

Mr. STEVENS offered an amendment, which was adopted, making all able-bodied persons of African descent, between 18 and 45 years, subject to the draft.

This was, however, afterward stricken out, together with one of the original sections.

The committee rose without concluding its action on the amendments of the Military Committee, and the House, at a quarter to five, adourned.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SOUTH.

A Heavy Force of Union Troops Advancing upon Richmond.

The Rebel Pickets at Bottom's Bridge Driven In.

A FIGHT EXPECTED YESTERDAY.

The Movement Upon Mobile.

Operations of Gen. Gillmore Against Charleston.

FORTRESS MONROE, Monday, Feb. 8.

The Richmond Examiner of to-day has been received, and contains the following:

RICHMOND, Monday, Feb. 8.

Richmond is threatened by the enemy. Our pickets were driven in on Saturday night at Bottom's Bridge, twelve miles from Richmond. The enemy crossed the York River Railroad near Dispatch Station. A large force, massed at Barhansville moved forward to Tallisville yesterday afternoon, and was then advancing. Their force consists of three brigades of infantry, four regiments of cavalry and twelve pieces of artillery. The enemy's demonstration yesterday was probably intended as a reconnoissance preliminary to an important collision to-day. Certainly the enemy has come in numbers which preclude the idea of a mere raid.

The Sentinel of the 4th states that two Union transports and a gunboat were at West Point on the 3d, and also that 3,000 Federals are advancing up the peninsula.

THE ADVANCE ON MOBILE.

MOBILE, Saturday, Feb. 6.

The enemy crossed the Big Black yesterday. His force consisted of six regiments of infantry, two of cavalry and two batteries at the railroad bridge. They attempted to cross at Messenger's, but failed. The city is full of rumors, and some excitement prevails, but the people generally are confident. The enemy is 30,000 strong. Gen. ROSS whipped their cavalry yesterday on the Yazoo.

OPERATIONS AGAINST CHARLESTON.

CHARLESTON, Friday, Feb. 5.

Eighty shots were fired at the city yesterday. The monitors fired 11 and 15-inch shells.

CHARLESTON, Saturday, Feb. 6.

Eighty-eight shots were fired at the city to-day. There was no firing at Sumter. The enemy has been hauling ammunition all day to Gregg and Cummings' Point batteries. There was a large fire on Folly Island to-day. It is supposed to have been caused by the burning of the Yankee hospitals.

A gunboat in the Edisto River is lying high and dry. It is believed she will be destroyed.

CHARLESTON, Sunday, Feb. 7.

The enemy has ceased firing on the city, but continues working on the batteries and hauling ammunition.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Thirty-five rebel cavalry were captured in Gloucester County on the previous Friday.

Considerable anxiety is felt for EARLY's command in Western Virginia.

The Confederate States Tobacco Agent calls upon the producers to deliver their tithe of tobacco between June 1 and July 15.

BELLE BOYD was at Atlanta a few days ago. She leaves shortly for Europe, where, the Sentinel says, she will receive great attention as one of the heroines of the war.

Col. CLAUDIUS CROSET, an eminent civil engineer, died at Richmond on the 29th of January. He was a native of Lyons, France.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 6th says the Confederate Congress has got in a pet with the newspaper men, and will conscript all below 45 years of age, making it necessary to suspend all the newspapers, except such as are necessary to do the public printing. There are now but thirty-five papers in the Confederacy.

THE WAR IN THE SOUTHWEST.

Desperate Condition of the Rebels—Advance of Our Forces in Arkansas—News from Vicksburgh—Large Arrivals of Deserters.

ST. LOUIS, Monday, Feb. 8.

The Democrat's Fort Smith special dispatch says: "The steamer Leon had arrived with commissary stores, and the Chippewa was expected to-day.

Capt. RUSSELL, a rebel Adjutant-General, now a prisoner here, says PEMBERTON now commands at Mobile.

The Third Wisconsin Cavalry has reënlisted, and will start for home in a few days.

A squad of Texas refugees, six days from Gen. MCCULLOUGH's headquarters at Bonham, arrived yesterday. They report a fearful state of affairs, and the whole country beyond the rebel army, they say, is a battle-field, where engagements between deserters and guerrillas are frequent, in which the former are generally successful.

Refugees send numerous messages to the Federal army, pledging enough armed recruits to hold the country. They only wait to see the head of a Federal column to rise.

STEELE's cavalry advance occupy Benton, 60 miles south of Little Rock."

The steamer J. J. Rae with a large cargo of molasses and 127 bales of cotton for St. Louis, has arrived.

Private advices from Vicksburgh to the 1st instant, represent that everything was progressing favorably with the military expedition.

There were a large number of cases of small-pox in the Eighty-first Illinois Regiment; but effective measures were being taken to prevent it from spreading to the other regiments. The weather was fine.

The steamer Wm. Wallace, with the Twenty-first Missouri Regiment on board, while passing Island No. 71 on the 28th ult., was fired upon by guerrillas from the Mississippi shore. Nearly one hundred shots were fired during ten minutes. THOMAS RYAN, Sergeant of Company D, was killed, and two privates wounded, who have since died, and four others were severely wounded.

The steamer Arago, lying in Old River, was also fired into on the 27th ult. Three hundred shots struck her, but no one was hurt.

The loss by the late fire in Memphis amounts to $75,000. There was no insurance. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Among the buildings destroyed was the Presbyterian Church.

Deserters from the rebel army are coming into Memphis at the rate of 50 to 75 per day. One hundred and fifty came in one day.

Major-Gen. MCCLERNAND and Staff arrived to-day, en route for the Department of the Gulf.

Several hundred guerrillas are reported conscripting back of Fort Pillow.

Cotton transactions for the past few days have been very limited. The shipments now exceed the arrivals, and at the present rate the city will soon be cleared. Prices are about three cents lower in consequence of advices from the East.

The Express Newspaper Case—It is sent before a Jury for trial.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—CHAMBERS.

Before Judge Cardozo.

Stephen F. Clark vs. James Brooks and Erastus Brooks.—Judge CARDOZO rendered a lengthy decision in the motion made in this case to send it before a jury for trial. His Honor said the issues must be framed and the case tried by a jury.

THE CASE AT TRIAL TERM—COUNSEL'S OPINION OF THE ORDER AT SPECIAL TERM.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—TRIAL TERM.

Before Judge Brady.

Same vs. Same.—This case was called for trial yesterday morning. Mr. Smyth said he held in his hand the order of Judge Cardozo, sending the case to a jury for trial. Mr. Cram said that this was unprecedented, and unparalleled in the course of his experience at the bar. No such order had been entered, and he had not seen any. It was unjust, and he would denounce it in court and out of court. His Honor said that the order of Judge Cardozo was final as far as it went. An appeal might be taken to the General Term, but the order as it now stood was binding upon him, and the case must go over.

Breach of Promise Case—The Lady Wants $5,000 Damages for Being Kept Waiting.

SUPERIOR COURT—TRIAL TERM.

Before Justice Monell.

Mary Pennington vs. David Hall.—The plaintiff is an elderly maiden lady, and alleges that the defendant, about the 5th day of September, 1862, promised and agreed to marry; that she has been waiting ever since, and that she is still unmarried, and that defendant now refuses and declines to marry her, for which she claims damages in the sum of $5,000. The defendant denies the allegations of the complaint. The evidence shows that the parties boarded in the same house in Yorkville, and the plaintiff testifies that defendant made not love to her, and promised to marry her on the first Sunday in November, 1862.

The defendant swore that he never promised to marry her; that he never gave her a watch, as alleged by plaintiff, but that plaintiff took the watch out of his pocket, and that she refused to give it up. Defendant also testified that plaintiff followed him all over the house, and that he hardly spoke thirty words to her in his life. It also appeared from the evidence that on the first Sunday in November, 1862, the plaintiff prepared herself and put on the wedding garments and went down into the parlor of the house where they boarded, but defendant was not there.

Plaintiff on being asked her age, became suddenly deaf, but finally said that she was thirty.

Counsel for the defendant asked her how much more?

Plaintiff said, well, she was between thirty and thirty-one.

Verdict for the defendant.

Mr. Carpenter, for the plaintiff; Mr. Van Voorhees, for defendant.

MONDAY, Feb. 8—P. M.

The Weekly Averages of the Banks of the City of New-York on Saturday, Feb. 6, 1864, present in the aggregate the following changes from the previous exhibit of Jan. 30:

Increase in Loans	$779,950
Decrease in Specie	132,841
Increase in Circulation	61,204
Increase in Undrawn Deposits	3,183,627

Including the Clearing-house operations of the week, which show the inter-exchanges between the Banks, and including also the Sub-Treasury balance at the close of the week, the following is the general comparison with the previous exhibit, and also with the movement this time last season:

	Feb. 7, 1863.	Feb. 6, 1864.	Jan. 30, 1864.
Capital	$69,128,000	$69,722,508	$69,722,508
Loans	179,892,161	163,076,846	162,296,896
Specie	38,243,839	24,070,791	24,203,632
Circulation	8,780,154	5,974,762	5,913,558
Gross Deposits	216,734,872	204,754,060	201,716,516
Exchanged	50,392,095	70,905,164	71,051,101
Undrawn	166,342,777	133,849,042	130,665,415
In Sub-Treasury	5,672,911	35,223,715	37,967,724

The Bank return this afternoon sufficiently accounts for the appearances through last week, and especially on Friday and Saturday, of an increased supply of Money on the market at 7 per cent. The deposits are over three millions ahead of last Monday. The Loans and Discounts are up nearly eight hundred thousand dollars. The small draft on the Specie line, after an export demand of $663,000, and $1,834,000 paid in for Customs last week, is unexpected. The neighboring cities and a good many of the Western Banks and Bankers have been sellers of Gold in this market. Other holders nearer home have also probably availed of the present high premium. While the Banks lose $132,841, the Treasury Office gains $1,495,710 on last Monday's report of Specie. The Stock of Gold and Silver to-day is as follows:

	Monday Feb. 8.	Monday, Feb. 1.
In Bank	$2,070,791	$24,203,632
Treasury Office	17,113,941	15,618,231
Total	$41,184,732	$39,821,863
Gain in City since Feb. 1		$1,362,869

On the Stock Exchange there was increased excitement to-day, and a further advance on the Railway speculation, as compared with Saturday, on all the New-York Roads; the favorite being Erie Common, next to which Hudson River came in for the largest rise. The Western list was active, but at somewhat irregular prices. The Shares of Chicago and Rock Island, which lead the January rise, are 3@4 ₩ cent. down. The Government Stocks are firm, and sales of the Popular Loan were made on the Street of the regular 1st November issue at a fraction above the Board quotations. The registered Certificates of the 1881 Loan are again ahead of the Coupons, the demand being strong for banking purposes for the registered. The one-year Currency 6 ₩ cent. Certificates of Indebtedness have advanced to 98⅞ ₩ cent., this issue being on the decrease. The large claims upon the Government, on the certification of Quartermasters and others, are now being paid 50 ₩ cent. in Legal Tender and 50 ₩ cent. in Certificates, in place of 25 and 75 ₩ cent. respectively. The Treasury Office here is in receipt to-day of a large amount of the 5 ₩ cent. Legal-Tenders, which are being paid out by stamping the first Coupon with the date of payment. Thus the Coupon due 1st June next will carry only 110 in place of 180 days' interest, if issued to the public creditors to-day.

At 4 o'clock the following prices were made in comparison with Saturday night. Gold has fluctuated between 158⅞@159⅜ ₩ cent. The Railway speculation was higher on the New-York Roads after the Second Board, and the Shares of Cumberland and Canton were higher, and the former much excited. The general market left off buoyant:

In reference to rumors that a large amount of the Mortgages of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Company are about being converted into the Common Shares, we have reason to state that the present authorized capital being full, no such conversion can take place without a general vote of the stockholders, either at the annual meeting, or a meeting specially called to act upon the question. While we hold that it would be the real interest of the shareholders, and for the substantial good of the Stocks it is proper to give the foregoing facts in contradiction to rumors designed to effect the immediate speculation in, and delivery for short account of the Stock.

The rumors partially current on Saturday that there was serious disagreement in the New-York Central Board, and that Mr. CORNING was about to resign, are not confirmed from Albany. The meetings in that city of the Board on Friday night and Saturday morning, were on the ordinary business of the Road.

The total earnings of the Sacramento Valley Railroad for the year 1863 have been $358,000. The total expenses, $224,000, of which $29,000 were for construction account. The gains are much larger than in any former year. The Company has no floating debt, and everything is in complete running order, with a stock of all needful supplies.

The Washington Insurance Company have declared a stock dividend of 8 ₩ cent., payable on demand; a scrip dividend for 1863 of 60 ₩ cent., and an interest dividend on outstanding scrip of 6 ₩ cent.

The day's business at the office of the Assistant Treasurer of the United States, New-York, was as follows: Receipts, $6,573,020 46, including for Customs, $336,000; payments, $7,808,438 23; balance, $33,988,297 69.

The time for proposals for $100,000 Gold Bonds of Quicksilver Mining Company, advertised by Messrs. HOLLGARTEN & HERZFIELD, expired to-day. It is stated that they received no bids whatever. The Company announce, however, that their Bonds, maturing Feb. 9, will be paid at the Treasurer's office.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE REBELLION.

Richmond papers of yesterday, received at Fortress Monroe, contain the somewhat unexpected information that a Union force, consisting of three brigades of infantry, four regiments of cavalry and twelve pieces of artillery were advancing upon that city, evidently with more serious intentions than making a raid. The rebel pickets at Bottom's Bridge, four miles from the city, are reported to have been driven in on Saturday, and a fight yesterday was considered more than probable. The same journals say that a force of 30,000 Union troops in the Southwest had crossed the Big Black River and were advancing upon Mobile.

From the Army of the Potomac we have the details of the late reconnoissance across the Rapidan. The Second Army Corps, under command of Gen. CALDWELL, temporarily, moved to the river at Morton's Ford, where the Third Division, under Gen. HAYES, crossed over, under cover of Capt. ARNOLD's Rhode Island Battery. A rebel picket guard was surprised and captured in the works on the bank. After a short advance the rebels were met in large force, when they made two attacks on our troops, both of which were gallantly repulsed. During one of these fights, one of our regiments—the Fourteenth Connecticut—composed largely of conscripts, got thrown into disorder, and suffered quite severely from the rebel fire. Night coming on, our forces were ordered back to the north side of the river, it having been demonstrated that the rebel army was still in large force on the south side of the Rapidan. Our loss was about two hundred killed and wounded, of whom only six were known to be killed. It was ascertained that their army is still encamped between the Rapidan and Gordonsville, and that great efforts are making to fill it up with conscripts. The rebel conscription agents spare no one, and it is reported that LEE expects his army to be strengthened by forty thousand new men from the fresh levy.

Dispatches from Chattanooga, dated the 7th, have been received at Cincinnati, which state that the Railroad is now open from Chattanooga to Cleveland, Tenn., and will shortly be open to Knoxville. Deserters from the rebels still keep coming in. One thousand arrived during January. Gen. LOGAN's expedition had returned to Huntsville, without encountering the enemy. The rebel army is reported encamped from Dalton to Rome!

The Cincinnati Commercial learns from high official sources at Knoxville, "that the rebel Kentucky regiments in LONGSTREET's command have been furloughed for thirty days, with the agreement upon their part that upon the expiration of this period they will reënlist in the rebel service. From trustworthy information derived by our informant, officially, from citizens residing in the vicinity of LONGSTREET's present position, we have reason to believe that numbers of men thus furloughed are taking advantage of the President's Amnesty Proclamation, by coming within our lines and taking the prescribed oath, with the intention of disregarding its obligations and of returning to the rebel army upon the expiration of their furloughs."

STATE LEGISLATURE.

In the Senate yesterday, the Metropolitan Police Bill, naming Messrs. ACTON, BERGEN, PURDY and JONES, Commissioners, was reported favorably. Bills were introduced reducing the capital stock of the Brooklyn City and Ridgewood Railroad Company, and amending the Charter of Brooklyn.

In the Assembly, a resolution was presented and laid on the table, calling for the appropriation of $20,000, for the erection of a monument in the Gettysburgh National Cemetery, to the memory of the deceased New-York soldiers.

GENERAL NEWS.

At the meeting of the Board of Councilmen, yesterday, a resolution by Mr. JACQUES was adopted, directing the Finance Committee to prepare and report a memorial to be presented to Congress, asking a reimbursement to the City, from the Federal Treasury, of the moneys advanced in 1861 to equip and arm troops from the $1,000,000 Union Defence Fund. Another resolution by Mr. JACQUES, directing the Street Commissioner forthwith to advertise for proposals, and contract with the lowest bidder, for the Corporation printing, was referred. A resolution making an appropriation in blank, and providing for a Joint Committee of ten, to celebrate WASHINGTON's birthday, was adopted. A numerously signed petition from property owners in the Eleventh, Seventeenth and Eighteenth Wards, requesting that steps be taken to erect a public market upon the "Lowber property," foot of East Sixteenth-street, was presented by Mr. GROSS, and was referred to the Committee on Markets, with instructions to report upon the subject as early as possible. Mr. GROSS presented a resolution to memorialize the Legislature for the passage of an act increasing the limit of the number of Commissioners of Deeds in this City to 500, and legalizing all the appointments of these officers heretofore made by the Common Council. This was adopted, and immediately afterward, by 19 to 3, the board overruled Mayor GUNTHER's veto of the resolution appointing about 200 new Commissioners to fill vacancies. The new half-million Relief Fund Ordinance (No. 8) was concurred in. On the recommendation of the Comptroller, a resolution was adopted to transfer $15,000 from the Russ Pavement Improvement Fund to the account of City Contingencies, specially to give a reception to the reënlisted veterans now in the City. On motion of Mr. GROSS, Dr. SAYRE, the Resident Physician, was requested to assist the Corporation Counsel in drafting an ordinance for the better regulation of tenement houses. Adjourned to Thursday, at 1 o'clock P. M.

At Special Term of the Court of Common Pleas, yesterday, Judge CARDOZO rendered an opinion of some length sending the issues (after settlement) in the Express newspaper case before a jury for trial. Subsequently, the case came up before Judge BRADY at Trial Term, where counsel for the plaintiff denounced the order made by Judge CARDOZO as unprecedented, unparalleled and unjust. He would denounce it in court and out of court. The court said the order was binding until reversed on appeal, and the case accordingly went over.

The mystery of the Malden (Massachusetts) Bank murder is at last solved. The Postmaster of the place, EDWARD W. GREEN, against whom suspicions have lately been aroused, was arrested on Sunday evening last, when he at once confessed the deed, in all its particulars, and told where a considerable portion of the money could be found, which was recovered. GREEN is 27 years old, has a wife and one child, and heretofore had borne a good character.

It has been stated that Vermont has not raised her quota, and that 889 men are still wanted to complete it. The statement conveys a wrong impression. Vermont has raised her full quota on the October call, and a surplus of 1,034. She lacked, under previous calls, 1,923, leaving a deficiency under all the calls of the President of only 889. Few States have a better record.

A light supply and clear, cool weather helped the owners of cattle to dispose of their stock at ½c.@1c. ℔ lb. above the prices of last week. About 3,300 bullocks were on sale yesterday at the Forty-fourth-street yards, and as very few additions were reported as likely to arrive for the second day, butchers bought freely at the advance, and nearly emptied the yards before night. Good fat cattle were worth 13c. ℔ lb., and some of the best will be 14c., when killed, as sellers called the animals heavier than they really were. Common cattle brought about 10c.

At the Produce Exchange yesterday business was partially suspended in consequence of the riotous conduct of a corn speculator, who had to be disabled before he could be removed. Prices of Flour, Wheat and Oats favored sellers. Corn and Whisky declined materially. Provisions were buoyant. Sugars and Tallow were in fair demand. Cotton was unsettled. Freights were quiet.

The Stock market was again very buoyant yesterday and higher on the Erie speculation. Money in easy supply. Gold and Exchange a fraction dearer. The stock of Gold in Bank and in the Treasury is $1,361,000 larger than last week.

The Visit of George Thompson, M. P.—The Garrisonian School.

GEORGE THOMPSON, the famous English Abolitionist, whose oratorical displays against Slavery excited such commotion in our large cities thirty years ago, is about to revisit this country. He will undoubtedly be made the object of a good deal of glorification by the old-line Anti-Slavery men of the Garrisonian stamp. This is well enough for them, for he was once their fellow-laborer and fellow-sufferer. But is he entitled to any such welcome from our people generally? Do the Anti-Slavery Union men of the North owe him any special tribute of respect and honor for what he once here said and did?

We don't ask this with any reference to the fact that he is an Englishman. Allow, if need be, that he was no intruder here, that he had precisely the same right to deliver himself against American Slavery that any American had, our inquiry yet is, whether he is now entitled to American laudation? In other words, we give the question the broad scope whether the Garrisonian school, with which he was identified, deserve well of the Republic? We all rejoice in the downfall of Slavery;—are we indebted for it to them?

We say emphatically, No! The work was not theirs. It was not theirs either in method or in result. It was not theirs either directly or indirectly, proximately or remotely, as a condition or as a final cause. Precisely the contrary. Had their principles been adopted, and their plans acted upon, Slavery at this day would be stronger than ever, and more secure of an indefinite perpetuation. There is no refuting this fact.

What was the distinctive Anti-Slavery principle of that school? It was that the Government of the United States had no right to live in partnership in Slavery, and that a Government that did so live was not to be supported. GARRISON expressed it in the motto of his paper that the "Constitution was a covenant with hell;" and in his practical life of perpetual refusal to vote, or perform any other civil duty, under that Constitution. So preached THOMPSON. So preached and practiced WENDELL PHILLIPS and all the lesser disciples.

In other words these set of men labored exactly for the same end for which JOHN C. CALHOUN labored—the dissolution of the Union between the non-slaveholding and the slaveholding States. Their moral purpose differed from his, but their political purpose was exactly the same. In idea opposed as widely as the poles, in action they worked shoulder to shoulder. CALHOUN endeavored to break up the Union to save Slavery; GARRISON endeavored to break up the Union to get loose from Slavery. Slavery made the one a disunion man; Anti-Slavery the other. Yet they both worked, each in his own way, with entire devotion to the common object.

Now what are we fighting? Disunion, are we not? This war has an existence simply and solely because the Northern people have been determined to maintain the entirety of this nation—that is to say, because they have been determined not to permit that which CALHOUN and GARRISON sought to accomplish. Had the Government and the people cherished the hate of the Union which CALHOUN and GARRISON inculcated, not a soldier would have been raised; JEFF. DAVIS would have been "let alone" just as he demanded to be; secession would have been peacefully accomplished; and the Confederacy, with its Slavery "cornerstone," would now be standing firm and strong, compelling the tribute of all nations. It is war for the Union alone that has prevented this new condition of Slavery. More than that, it is this war for the Union alone that is destroying the old condition of Slavery. It has not only thwarted the aggrandizement of the institution, but it has, or will, put an end to its very existence. True, this was not the original aim of the war for the Union, but that matters not; it has been an effect of the war, and but for it could never have been realized. With what face, then, can these disunion Abolitionists lay the slightest claim to any credit for the destruction of Slavery we are now witnessing?

Is it said that though their political principles were erroneous, their moral agitation against Slavery so educated the North as to make possible President LINCOLN's election, with all its magnificent Anti-Slavery results? We deny it. These men did not contribute to that election. They kept utterly aloof from all participation in it. It was effected by an Anti-Slavery spirit of the North, but not one of their creation or promotion. It was a spirit that resisted the extension of Slavery, but a spirit, too, that cherished the Union, and respected the Constitution. It sprang into being long before any man of them saw the light. Our grandfathers had it when they formed the great ordinance excluding Slavery from the Northwest. Our fathers had it when they made that stern fight which ended in securing perpetual freedom in all territory north of the parallel, afterward known as the Missouri Compromise line. The pretensions which we sometimes see advanced, that GARRISON and PHILLIPS and company generated the Anti-Slavery sentiments of the North, is monstrous. They began their work in 1833. The halls of Congress never rang with fiercer fulminations against Slavery than in 1820. The Sixteenth Congress contended for freedom in Missouri, with every whit as great force in numbers and determination in spirit, as the Thirty-fourth Congress contended for Freedom in Kansas. GARRISON and PHILLIPS had as little to do in supplying the morale of the one struggle as of the other. So far as they had any agency in the last great conflict, it demoralized the North, instead of the reverse. Their hatred of the Union made tens of thousands of honest men confound Anti-Slavery with disunion, and turned them upon the side of Slavery. We have not a particle of doubt that there was not a year in the twenty-five years preceding the rebellion, when the Anti-Slavery cause in this country would not have further advanced, and been in every respect better off, had WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON, and WENDELL PHILLIPS, and GEORGE THOMPSON, or disunion abolition speakers and writers like them, never existed.

In no respect is the emancipation, which we are hailing, their work, either politically or morally. Not politically, because they opposed the Union, for which this war was made, which war alone has destroyed Slavery. Not morally, for they did what they could to identify Anti-Slavery with disunion, thereby weakening the resistance of the North to the demands of Slavery. Their motives, perhaps, were all right enough. But good motives don't justify a ruinous policy. Nor do they entitle to a share in the credit of others, whose motives have been equally good, and whose policy was infinitely better. GARRISON and his colaborers may well rejoice in the emancipation we are now seeing. Nobody grudges them that. They may properly enough congratulate their old English friend upon it, if they like. All Anti-Slavery men the world over, whether wise or unwise, must of course feel a satisfaction in this result. But the Garrisonians have no right to treat this consummation as their victory. They will fail if they undertake to figure as conquering champions. The great Anti-Slavery North will blow no trumpets over either them or their guest.

THE FINE WEATHER—WINTER CAMPAIGNING.—The remarkable character of the weather that has thus far marked the present Winter, leaves our military men without an excuse, which has hitherto served as a sufficient rejoinder to popular impatience at military inactivity. This exceptional season—which has not had its like for half a century—instead of being separated from the natural season of field-work by the customary characteristics of impassable roads and inclement skies, has been rather a continuation of Summer. It would seem as though the principalities and powers of the air had specially designed this Winter for active operations; and there is no doubt that, had it not been for other considerations that have made it impossible for our Generals to take advantage of the opportunity, this Winter would have seen brisk work. The business of reorganization and reënlistment has, however, been of paramount importance, and has necessarily overruled any temptations to military operations which the fine weather may have held out. But while this necessity has made it impossible to turn this opportunity to immediate account, it is not unlikely that a continuance of the mild weather will enable our Commanders to anticipate by a month or two what would, under ordinary circumstances, have been the opening of the Spring campaign. Indeed, we see already the premonitory signs of speedy, active work, both in the East and West. In the Southwest we have the tidings of the departure from Vicksburgh and Holly Springs of a grand cavalry expedition, designed, doubtless, to operate in Alabama and Mississippi, where work of the first importance is to be done in destroying railroads, depots of supplies, factories, etc., etc., while other combinations afoot look as though Mobile may ere long find itself between two fires. In Virginia, the late reconnoissance shows a determination to keep posted as to LEE's whereabouts and strength, while in West Virginia Gen. KELLY keeps "pegging away." The present Winter, unlike any previous Winter of the war, has no record of disasters to the Union arms to show; and all the indications are such as to promise an early advance along the whole line.

THE HOMELESS CHILDREN OF OUR SOLDIERS.—While sympathetic hearts are working for the disabled soldier, a word is due in behalf of his children. They are neglected. New-York should do more for them than it does. Our places of shelter for these children are few; in fact, there are but two or three in the City, and each is capable of accommodating but a limited number. Fairs have been held, and contributions have been made, toward building a commodious house, to be ready in the Spring. But what is to become of the little ones during the cold Winter? It is a mistake to suppose that there is less poverty now than ever before in New-York. The thirfty laboring man is well supplied with work, and is paid well for it—no more, comparatively, however, than heretofore—but there are as many as ever suffering among a different class. The dead or disabled soldier's family—those whom sickness or intemperance prevent from work—the orphaned or forsaken children living on the uncertainties of the street, are as numerous and as much in want as ever. There are a thousand children in this City now, whose fathers have been or are now at the war, who are knocking in vain at the doors of the Soldier's Child's Refuge for admittance. They cannot enter, for there is no room for them. This ought not to be. Innocent childhood should not be left to starve and die, or beg and steal. Houses should be hired now, and over them should be placed kind and Christian men and women, who will open the hitherto closed avenues of life and love to those little ones.

AFFAIRS IN WESTERN VIRGINIA.—The activity of the rebel forces in that part of Western Virginia contiguous to Martinsburgh, New-Creek and Cumberland, has of late been so great, and their success so general, as to cause us to wonder why our supposed energetic Commander in that region was not able to interfere with or defeat the numerous raids of these forces. We have had a great many voluminous dispatches from headquarters at Cumberland, all assuring us that the enemy were completely defeated and being vigorously pursued; but the result has nearly always been that the rebels have got away with their plunder, and left the loyal people of that section so much the poorer. We now have a letter from a thoroughly loyal and reliable resident of that section, complaining bitterly of Gen. KELLY's management, especially in the matter of the late raid by the rebel cavalry on the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Our correspondent says the rebels moved at their pleasure, and succeeded in robbing the loyal citizens of and carrying off several thousand cattle, sheep and hogs, all of which might have been prevented by energetic and competent management. Our correspondent also says that many of the reports as telegraphed are unreliable, and successes are reported for us when there really are none. We fear there is ground for these statements, and hope, for the sake of the oppressed loyal residents of that part of Virginia, that an improved military management there may soon be instituted.

Amusements.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The performance of "Norma" last night was witnessed by another brilliant audience. Mr. MARETZEK's artists seem to have rejuvenated this popular work. Since its production last Spring, it has been one of the favorites of the repertoire. The distribution is in all respects admirable. Mme. MEDORI infuses great dramatic power into the rôle of the Druidess, and sings the music with admirable knowledge and command of her own ample resources. Mlle. SULZER as Adalgisa, is seen to the greatest advantage. The male part of the distribution is remarkably strong, and leaves nothing to be desired. Both Signor MAZZOLENI as Pollio, and Signor BIACHI as Oroveso, are capital.

The performance, last night, passed off with the usual demonstrations of applause, Mr. MARETZEK presiding in the orchestra. In consequence of the Arion ball on Thursday evening, there will be no performance at the Academy on Wednesday. It takes place to-night instead. GOUNOD's opera of "Faust" will be given. This work, by the way, will be played for the last time in some weeks, on Friday; and on the following day, Saturday, "Ione" will also be the final time.

MASON AND THOMAS' CHAMBER CONCERTS.—The third soirée of chamber music will be given at Dodworth's Hall to-night. The morceaux are quartette for stringed instruments in F major, op. 41, No. 2, by SCHUMANN; sonate, for piano, in C minor, a posthumous work, by SCHUBERT, and quartette for stringed instruments in F major, opus. 59, No. 1, by BEETHOVEN.

The Malden Bank Murder—Arrest and Confession of the Perpetrator.

BOSTON, Monday, Feb. 8.

The Malden Bank robber and murderer has at length been arrested in the person of EDWARD W. GREEN, Postmaster of Malden. GREEN has confessed the crime, and most of the stolen money has been recovered.

GREEN is 27 years old, and has a wife and one child, and heretofore has borne a good character.

BOSTON, Monday, Feb. 8.

After the search of GREEN's person he was conducted into an adjoining room, where he was informed that he had been followed and watched for some time. Thereupon—without any unusual emotion—he confessed his guilt. He stated that on the day of the murder he visited the bank twice; the first time he found there a conductor, who left a pair of States; the next time was at 11½ o'clock. Immediately on entering he went into the directors' room, and seeing no one, drew his pistol—a six-barrelled SMITH & WESSON's revolver, placing the muzzle within a foot of young CONVERSE's head and fired, the ball taking effect under or back of his ear. He instantly discharged a second barrel, the ball taking effect in CONVERSE's temple, while his victim lay on the floor.

After the consummation of the deed he seized the bills in the drawer, about five thousand dollars, and went to his own office. He informed the persons present that a portion of the money was concealed in a piece of newspaper, in an old boot in the Post-office. Six hundred and fifteen dollars were found as he had directed. He further stated that the balance was secreted under the flooring in the attic of Volunteer Engine house, and on making search, three thousand four hundred and fifty dollars in Malden Bank bills were found, making in all four thousand and sixty-nine dollars. This, with several sums paid by him, accounts for the whole amount stolen from the bank.

He also stated that the pistol was in a drawer at his boarding-house, and, on going there, it was found.

GREEN was brought to this City and committed to the Tombs. The feelings of his wife on hearing of his arrest can better be imagined than described.

THE LATE ATTACK ON NEWBERN.

INTERESTING AND DETAILED ACCOUNT.

How the Gunboat Underwriter was Destroyed.

Hasty Retreat of the Rebels, and Safety of the City.

Correspondence of the New-York Times:

NEWBERN, N. C., Wednesday, Feb. 3, 1864.

My note of yesterday contained a promise of something in addition to the simple statement of the fact that we had been attacked by the enemy in force, and I will now give a brief account of what has been for the last few days so absorbing to us. There had been for some time past intimations of a design on the part of the rebels to attack us, but we had felt such a sense of security that the civilians at least, gave them little heed. The heavy firing, however, on Monday morning, in the direction of Bachelor's Creek, taught us that the enemy did not take precisely the same views of our safety. This post is about eight miles west of us on the railroad, near a small creek emptying into the Neuse River. In this vicinity two block-houses had been built, one on the Neuse road, running nearly parallel with the river, and the other on the Mill road, running diagonally to the parallels; some slight defences besides had been thrown up for the protection of the garrison. The One Hundreth and Thirty-second New York Volunteers, Col. CLAASEN commanding, were occupying this post at the time of attack. The first point to be gained by the enemy was the bridge on the Neuse road, over what is called Bachelor's Creek. The fire upon our cavalry pickets was opened about 3 o'clock, driving them in, and soon a vigorous attempt was made to get possession of the bridge, which Companies D, and E and G, of the One Hundred and Thirty-second, had been detailed to hold. The enemy charged three successive times, and as often were handsomely repulsed by the brave boys left in its defence. The rebels finding this point so hotly contested, had already commenced a flank movement up the stream, which Company A was appointed to intercept, while Companys I and K were to keep communication open between the block-houses. This flank movement could not be prevented. It was already too far advanced, and besides the enemy were too numerous, the force consisting of three brigades. Thus, after about four hours of hard fighting, the little garrison was forced to retire from its defences. The firing was distinctly heard in the city, and at daylight a part of five companies of the Seventeenth Massachusetts, under Lieut.-Col. FELLOWS, and two pieces of artillery, Capt. ANGELS' Battery K, Third New-York, were sent out as a reinforcement. They arrived at about 8 o'clock. Coming up to the One Hundred and Thirty-second, in an open space, the whole force was immediately formed in line of battle. The enemy also drew up in line at the same time, resting his wings on either side so as to flank our forces, thus compelling another retreat, which was made in good order, firing as they retired through the woods. It was evidently useless to undertake longer to check the advance of so large a force, and about 10 o'clock they commenced to return to the fortifications about the city, leaving behind many brave comrades, with most of the camp equipage, extra clothing, &c. Most of the Quartermaster's stores were destroyed.

I have not been able to procure a complete list of casualties.

Adjt. HENRY C. CHEEVER was mortally wounded. The last that was seen of Lieut.-Col. J. F. FELLOWS and Dr. J. F. GALLOUPE, they were assisting the Adjutant into an ambulance. The party, ambulance and all, was taken by the rebels. First Lieut. J. W. DAY, Co. E.; Capt. J. K. FLOYD and First Lieut. J. R. HILL, of Co. H.; First Lieut. L. B. CABINS, Co. I.; First Lieut. B. N. MANAS, Co. K., are also missing, with about fifty privates. The most of the fighting was done by the One Hundred and Thirtyty-second, loosing in all about eighty. Lieutenant and Acting-Quartermaster of Co. A, ARNOLD ZENETTI, killed.

Company A.—Sergt. Richter, Corp. John Denneman, Corp. Christian Wullen, Lewis Strab, Edward Thaller.

Company B.—Corp. James Folley, Serg. James Dekeb, B. Schmidt, Thos. Clinton, Luther Cook, Arthur Corcoran, Wm. Edwards, Wm. Elmer, John Hargan, Michael Kane, James Smith.

Company C.—First Lieut. Joseph Grasing.

Company G.—Second Lieut. W. A. C. Whyan.

There are among the missing other names I was not able to secure.

From the strength with which the enemy attacked Bachelor's Creek, it was evident they were taking steps looking toward the capture of the place. Deserters stated their force to be 15,000 to 20,000. Should this be their purpose, they have no small task before them. Our gunboats can be used in both rivers, and we are very strongly fortified on all sides, perhaps with one exception. Of all our defences Fort Totten is the most formidable.

It is a heavy earthwork, situated about half a mile from Evans, midway between the Neuse and Trent Rivers. It fronts the west, where stretches out before you an extensive plain, in former days a vast cotton plantation. To the right, on the bank of the Neuse, is Fort Stephenson, while to the left, on the opposite bank of the Trent, stands Fort Gaston. A strong breastwork runs in either direction to the rivers, thus linking all their forts together. Fort Totten is in a central commanding position. While it renders all approach from the west impossible, it commands the city and both rivers. From the tavern every point about Newbern is visible. Brig.-Gen. PALMER, who commands in the absence of Gen. PECK, his staff, a few other officers, and, by special favor, the writer, (your correspondent) were inside the fort, carefully watching the movements of the enemy. They could be seen with a glass, and sometimes with the naked eye, passing back and forth in the edge of the woods skirting the plain on the west. The Twelfth New-York cavalry, under Col. SAVAGE, were out as scouts. The most gratifying feature of their service was to bring in the companies of the Eighty-ninth New-York Volunteers, whom, in the fore part of the day, we feared had fallen into the hands of the enemy, from an outpost called Red House Tower, three miles distant. As the rebels ventured out of the thickets here and there, it was exceedingly gratifying to see Major S. C. OLIVER, commanding the post, send his shells bursting into their midst, soon scattering them into the woods for safety. Prisoners state that a Col. SHAY was killed by one of these shells. Every thing had gone well thus far. All the outposts had succeeded in getting in, except one at Bucker Grove, to the northwest about ten miles. It was held by one company. Every preparation was made to receive an expected attack in the morning.

The freedmen shouldered the guns and relieved the guards in the city. Some of the negroes came forward and offered their services; others had a polite invitation to do so by soldiers detached for the purpose. As soon as the service required was understood, more offered themselves than could be armed. Thus we received about a thousand accession of strength, to be used in case of an emergency.

I cannot close this day's record without noting one incident. A negro family were making their way to the fortification. The father had the children, while the wife came up as a rear guard. A rebel fired at the woman three times, without hitting his mark, and then came out in person to seize and bear her back to bondage. Thus stepping between the mother and her children, he did not understand the task he had proposed to himself. With an unfaltering courage she met him, wrested his gun from him, knocked him down, and came into the city with the musket as a trophy, and a dislocated forefinger as an evidence of the contest.

LOSS OF A GUNBOAT.

TUESDAY, Feb. 2.

The night has passed without a general attack, but not without a bold achievement by the enemy, alike humiliating to us as creditable to them. The gunboat Underwriter had passed up the Neuse River near Fort Stephenson, throwing out her anchors and placing all her guns on the port side, to be in readiness for any service in case of an attack on the town. She was in command of Capt. JACOB WESTERVELT, and had a crew of about 40, all told. About 1 o'clock at night, a part of Gen. PALMER's Staff went up in a small-boat to the Underwriter to get her gig, and some of the crew with it, to make a reconnoissance up the river. Not long afterward the sentinel saw some boats approaching, and hailing them, received no reply. He immediately fired his signal, and the crew, who were all sleeping, sprang to their posts; but before they could bring their guns to bear, the rebels were boarding the vessel. They came up on the starboard side, from which the guns had been moved, as before stated. A hand to hand contest ensued, but the enemy numbering about 200, overpowered the crew and they had to cry for quarter. Their stealthy foes could not have it, however, quite their own way. Fort Stephenson sent one shell through their boat, and another exploded on deck, setting their boat on fire. The attacking party, with their prisoners, poured into the small boats in such haste, that fifteen of the boat's crew, and some of the captors—a Sergeant—got into our boat. This fact soon became known among them, and the boat landed near Fort Stephenson, making the Captain a captive. Thus, under the shadow of the guns in the fort, and in sight of the guards in the breastworks, a gunboat is wrested from us, and must be destroyed. Certainly a handsome thing for the rebs, but bad for us.

All the officers, except Engineer ALLEN, are missing. The Captain is a prisoner. Besides those escaping in the boat are a few seamen, whose names I have been able to secure—Thos. Rink, Samuel C. Kates, R. E. Davis, John Simons and W. Lawrence. All others are missing.

The loss of this gunboat caused more anxiety than anything which had thus far taken place. And our little town became the scene of much excitement and intense activity. Everything else was lost sight of but the defence of the place. The fear that we had here but a small force, that our railroad communication with Beaufort could be easily severed, and thus all our supplies and reinforcements compelled to come by one channel—the shallow sound and the shore. Reports of some 20,000 or 30,000 rebels being around us, seemed to justify some concern. The enemy were drawing around us slowly, and about 8 o'clock they cut the telegraph and railroad communication with Morehead City, at a point called Newport, about twenty miles southeast of us. There was a small fortification there to protect the railroad, garrisoned by Company D, Second Massachusetts Artillery. The enemy soon got position; the guns had been spiked, however, and whether the company are prisoners or have retreated to Morehead, is not yet known. Thus, as night closed in upon us we were completely invested.

As the mail closes at 2 o'clock, I am obliged to send this communication unfinished. I am glad to state, for the relief of our friends at the North, that the rebels are beating a hasty retreat, and we all breathe very freely.

A dispatch-boat was sent this (Tuesday) evening to Fortress Monroe, carrying full advices to Gen. BUTLER, and asking for reinforcements.

From Fort Monroe.

Supreme Court of the United States.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Feb. 8.

The Supreme Court of the United States delivered an opinion to-day in the case of the proprietors of the bridges over the Rivers Passaic and Hackensack, plaintiffs in error, versus the Hoboken Land and Improvement Company in error to the Court of Errors and Appeals for the State of New-Jersey. Justice MILLER, in announcing the opinion, gave out at length the history of the controversy, from which it appears that the plaintiffs claimed the exclusive privilege of the erection of two bridges over these rivers, according to a franchise conferred upon their predecessors in 1790 by the State of New-Jersey, and therefore the act of 1860 could not give to the defendants a similar privilege within the prohibited limits, it being against the constitutional provision forbidding the impairing of contracts.

The Justice, in review, said the grant to the plaintiffs was conferred seventy-three years ago, when the idea of railroad communication did not enter into the minds of the legislators of that period. Steam since that time had produced a total revolution in travel, and was destined to have a still greater influence upon the affairs of the world. There could be no impairing of a contract, as the bridges or viaducts over which the railroad passes are a mere continuation of the rails, and do not take away or interfere with the tolls from the crossing of pedestrians and vehicles.

Justice MILLER said the court was satisfied that the Court of Error and Appeals had pronounced sound principles, and therefore its judgment was affirmed, with costs.

The Supreme Court, in a patent case, pronounced the opinion that purchasers of patented instruments, on which the patent has been extended, have the right to use such machines or instruments until they are worn out, although the patent may have been subsequently extended, without the payment of additional royalty; but that the right to manufacture and sell such patented articles expires at the termination of the time for which such patent had been issued, and does not cover any extension of said patent.

The Ice in the Hudson at Albany.

ALBANY, Monday, Feb. 8.

The Hudson River Railroad boat crossed the river to-day to within a few feet of the dock, at East Albany, which will be reached by a temporary bridge until the ice is cut away.

TRAGIC SCENES AT THE PRODUCE EXCHANGE.

A Policeman, Merchant and the Janitor of the Exchange Stabbed by a Speculator in Corn.

The Perpetrator Arrested and Taken to the Station-House.

HISTORY OF THE SPECULATOR.

At the close of last fall, Mr. LUTHER C. TIBBETTS gained considerable notoriety for himself, by making very heavy speculative purchases of Mixed Western Corn, at extraordinary high prices, the corn deliverable in the first ten days of the current month of February. He had subsequently some difficulty with his bankers, because of what he called the defamatory representations of certain rivals in business. He managed, however, to work through this difficulty, and determined to gain control of the available supply of corn here, so as to render it next to impossible for those who had sold to him, to fill their contracts unless on such terms as would suit his interest or convenience. On Friday last, at about noon, he made his appearance on Change and commenced buying briskly, until he had purchased twenty-three loads at prices varying from $1 33@1 40, agreeing to pay 3c. ⅌ bushel cash on that day, and the balance of the purchase money within ten days. He also sold a single load at $1 26, cash. About one o'clock P. M., he grew very much excited, having been greatly annoyed by some unknown parties, who had been pelting him with lumps of dough and quantities of grain; also by the persistency of a merchant, who had been offering a load of corn at $1 40, but with whom he had repeatedly declined to have any direct business transactions. He began to talk loudly about combinations which had been organized to crush him; about his fidelity to principle; his determination to fight out the battle of principle, even if it cost him his life; his enemies might take his corn and his money, but he would maintain his character, which he prized above everything else. Efforts were made to reason with him, but these efforts only increased his nervousness and mental excitement. He appealed to his God for protection, and refused to be pacified or reasoned with, warning all parties to avoid interfering with him or his rights. At this time the excitement on the floor was intense, and business was totally suspended. Shouts of "Put him out" were heard on all sides; he defied any one to put him out; he was fighting for principle, and he would not be put down. Two merchants then took hold of him, drew him to the stairway and down the stairway to the street, whence he started by himself for his office.

On Saturday, he was suspended and denied the privileges of the floor of 'Change by a formal vote of the Directory of the New-York Commercial Association, because of his turbulent conduct.

Yesterday, a few minutes before noon, he made his appearance at the Produce Exchange, holding in his hands some boxes of grain, and, as was afterward proven, a couple of packages of HOBSON & SONS' dirk knives, known to the trade as the "Southern knife." He ascended the stairway, evidently prepared to force his way in on the floor in defiance of the sentence of suspension adopted by the Board of Directors of the Association. On the landing at the head of the first flight of stairs, he was met by Mr. VANDERBILT, the janitor, who informed him that he could not go up any further. He made a very surly response, and gave positive evidence of his determination to fight his way up, by casting aside his boxes of corn and an unbroken quarter dozen package of dirk-knives. Mr. VANDERBILT instantly seized hold of him to prevent him from resorting to violence, but TIBBETTS quickly released himself, and brandishing an open dirk-knife, ran rapidly up the second flight of steps to the main floor, the crowd at the head of the stairway scattering in all directions before him, the majority keeping on the run until they had got safely out of the building. Once on the floor, he made directly for one of the grain tables, and jumping thereupon, commenced a violent harangue, holding his knife aloft in the most threatening manner, and dancing wildly about on the table. He yelled out frantically that "he was now monarch of all he surveyed; in indisputable control of that department of business, ready to kill any of his enemies and shed his own blood, and sacrifice his life in maintenance of his position. His enemies, he exclaimed, had robbed him of his money, of his corn, of his character. They might now take his life, but he would die fighting in his own defence; if he fell, he would be avenged. He kicked off the table nearly two scores of sample-boxes full of grain, and for a few minutes manœuvred like an Indian in a war-dance. Soon a policeman (Officer BESIMER,) made his appearance, and aided by the janitor and a few merchants, tried to knock TIBBETTS off the table. The janitor finally upset him, and a struggle then ensued between TIBBETTS and the policeman. He stabbed the policeman three or four times, once seriously, in the small of the back. The policeman struck him with his club over the forehead, cutting into the flesh. This fight lasted only a moment, when TIBBETTS was overpowered and thrown to the floor again. A merchant jumped on the arm with which he held the dirk-knife, but TIBBETTS managed to stab him in the toes of the right foot, wounding him slightly. Several other policemen now arrived, hammered TIBBETTS toughly, and finally disabled him so as to be enabled to take him into custody. He was then removed to the First Precinct Station-house, where charges were made against him by the Directory of the Commercial Association, and the policeman, whom he had so repeatedly stabbed.

In the scuffle with Mr. VANDERBILT, the janitor, in the beginning of the mêlée, TIBBETTS made a desperate effort to stab the janitor. Once the knife grazed his right hand, inflicting a slight wound on the forefinger of the hand; during another attempt, the point of the dirk-knife passed through the left breast of the coat, struck the watch in Mr. VANDERBILT's vest pocket, and, glancing off this, cut through the vest and completely severed a suspender, but fortunately did no further damage.

The unbroken package of dirk knives, which TIBBETTS threw away as he was ascending the stairs of the Produce Exchange, was taken possession of by Mr. BOUTON, the Clerk of the Exchange. We examined one of the knives. It was a weapon of the most penetrative properties, having a sharp-pointed blade, measuring some three and a half or four inches in length, and adjusted by a powerful spring. The handle was artistically finished off with a metallic "shoeing," adorned by a spread eagle in relief. What TIBBETTS required a half-a-dozen of such knives for, surpasseth the comprehension of sane men.

TIBBETTS was generally regarded as insane; he certainly acted like a maniac. It was reported on 'Change that he has been an ardent believer in spiritualism for several years past, and that he has avowedly entered into various business speculations under the guidance of "certain propitious spirits." We give this report for what it is worth. Mr. TIBBETTS is naturally intelligent and enterprising. In ordinary intercourse, independent of business cares and their deplorable consequences, he was uniformly courteous and conciliatory. He is obviously a man of extremely nervous temperament, and easily excited to a pitch of frenzy. His corn speculations and the attendant circumstances have engrossed all his thoughts during the past half year. It may be that in dwelling so constantly and anxiously on a single subject, his mind has succumbed. It is certain that his recent conduct on 'Change indicated extraordinary mental aberration. He is a native of South Berwick, Me., and about 45 years of age.

The gentlemen present on the Corn Exchange are evidently such as should be exempt from draft. They all acted like cowards, and were terrified, many of them, almost out of the windows, and a large number entirely out of the doors. None dared to attempt to disarm one man, and when the officer, BESIMER, was in deadly struggle with him, there was not one with pluck enough to rush in to his assistance. After he was stabbed Officers JACOBS and DOYLE arrived to his aid. Mr. BESIMER, who had three severe wounds, one in the thigh, one in the shoulder and one in the back of the right side, was conveyed to an adjacent hotel, where his wounds were attended to, and thence taken to the station-house, subsequently being sent to his home. He is very severely injured, but, it is thought, not dangerously. Officer BESIMER is one of the most faithful, reliable men in the department, most popular with his officers, associates, and in his precinct is recognized as a valuable officer.

When TIBBETTS was brought to the station-house, he was asked by Sergeant MATTHEW the ordinary questions, and to that as to his age, responded that he was "the same age as OLIVER CROMWELL was when he commenced his career." He expressed no regret for his act, but alleged he would do it again, and wished he had another opportunity. Sergeant MATTHEW locked him up.

At 2 P. M. Sergeant TOWNSEND, then in command, concluded, as the station-house was being overrun with the prisoner's friends and others, to send him to the Tombs. He was accordingly taken there and arraigned before Justice DOWLING, at a late hour. After a preliminary examination he was committed to await the result of the injuries he has inflicted on the officer. TIBBETTS is reputed to be a man of wealth. His family, a wife and six children, reside at Falls Village, Conn. Besides the six dirk knives that were found upon him was a letter, the following of which is a copy. He had sent the original to his wife in Connecticut:

Feb. 7, 1864.

DEAR WIFE—Inclosed is a report of Friday's Corn Market, from the NEW-YORK TIMES, which is very correct and much better than I can do it myself. The contest that I am now carrying on is what I have often told you that I would do if it cost me my life. It has now arrived at a point where my life will be put at stake, and I shall surely lay it down rather than swerve one jot or one tittle from what I consider right and just. If my life is sacrificed in this contest you will be telegraphed immediately, and I wish you to come to this City with all of the six children, and take the same weapon that I used, and with the same seal of truth and justice go immediately on 'Change and have some one point out to you the individual that has sacrificed my property and tried to destroy my character, and there stand and sell day by day corn enough for cash down to meet the payments as they become due; but sell only one load of corn to any one party. Keep the children on 'Change with you, and lay down your life and sacrifice them, which I know you will do to carry out the principles which I have inaugurated on that Corn Exchange. Don't wait for or take any care for my burial. Let others do that. Your work is of much more importance. Mr. FLETCHER will instruct you in regard to the way and manner of doing the business in carrying out my wishes. Try and be ready at a moment's warning to leave with all the children. Let me assure you that I shall not return home until this thing is decided, and it shall be victory or death with me. Have faith, be of good cheer and rejoice, for all things are working well. My eyes are so weak that I dare not write."

The brother-in-law of Mr. TIBBETTS, states that the original of the foregoing letter was mailed to his (TIBBETTS') wife, in Connecticut, either Sunday, or at an early hour yesterday morning. The friends of Mr. T. conclude that he has of late been laboring under a temporary aberration of mind.

A SHOCKING ACCIDENT IN BROADWAY.—Shortly before 12 o'clock yesterday, while a gentleman whose name is unknown was attempting to get out of a stage in Broadway, near Franklin-st., he stumbled and fell to the pavement. A large truck was being driven just behind the stage, and before the driver of the truck had time to stop his horses, one of his wheels passed entirely over the head of the prostrate man, crushing it to atoms, and of course killing him instantly. An inquest was held by Coroner NAUMANN, and the Jury rendered a verdict of accidental death, absolving the driver of the truck from all blame. The accident for a time created considerable excitement among the pedestrians on Broadway.

Coughs and Colds, Hoarseness, or any Pulmonary Complaint, attest its usefulness. In proof of this fact, we would state that for thirty years past the Expectorant has been before the public, and that each succeeding year has added to its popularity, and extended the demand, until now it is known and appreciated in all quarters of the world, and admitted to be the Great Remedy of the Age for that class of diseases for which it is especially designed.

Recent Coughs and Colds, Pleuritic Pains, &c., are quickly and effectually cured by its diaphoretic, soothing, and expectorant power.

Asthma it always cures. It overcomes the spasmodic contraction of the air vessels, and by producing free expectoration at once removes all difficulty of breathing.

Bronchitis readily yields to the Expectorant. It subdues the inflammation which extends through the wind tubes, produces free expectoration, and suppresses at once the cough and pain.

CONSUMPTION.—For this insidious and fatal disease no remedy on earth has ever been found so effectual. It subdues the inflammation, relieves the cough and pain, removes the difficulty of breathing, and produces an easy expectoration, whereby all irritating and obstructing matters are removed from the lungs.

Whooping Cough is promptly relieved by this Expectorant. It shortens the duration of the disease one-half, and greatly mitigates the sufferings of the patient.

In all Pulmonary Complaints, in Croup, Pleurisy, &c., it will be found to be prompt, safe, pleasant and reliable. All of Dr. JAYNE'S SONS' Family Medicines are sold in New-York by KITCHEN, TYLER & CO., No. 141 Chambers-st. and No. 1 Hudson-st., and by druggists generally.

Hoyt's Hiawatha Hair Restorative.
A CHALLENGE TO TEST.
There are many preparations in the market advertised to restore faded and gray hair. People seeing the advertisements are unable to decide which is preferable, and using one or two, and failing to derive the expected benefits, conclude that they are all humbugs. That it may be known which can be relied upon, the undersigned, proprietors of HOYT'S HIAWATHA HAIR RESTORATIVE propose that some well-known persons, to be agreed upon, disinterested and of unquestioned integrity, designate one person, whose hair has become gray, to the proprietor of each preparation, to restore it. Each proprietor to use nothing but his own preparation, and the person to use nothing else while the test is making. The certificate of the result to be published in all the principal papers of the country at the expense of the unsuccessful competitors.

AGAIN NEW TESTIMONY.

TESTIMONIAL FROM ONE OF THE MOST RESPECTABLE CITIZENS OF NEW-YORK. DEAFNESS AND CATARRH CURED.

No. 420 SIXTH-AV., NEW-YORK, Dec. 2, 1863.

I was deaf for several years, and hearing of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I was induced to place myself under his care, and I am now happy to state that my hearing was entirely restored after a short treatment. I was also suffering from chronic catarrh, of which I was also cured by the skillful treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg. I do but justice to the Doctor in stating that in treating me he displayed that skill and knowledge which have already procured for him such a deserved reputation, and that the principles which direct his system of curing Deafness and Catarrh are such as to render success certain, in my opinion. Many months have passed since Dr. Von Eisenberg restored my hearing, and it continues as good as ever.

O. HOPKINS.

CATARRH CURED.
READ!

I have been suffering for a long time from severe Catarrh, with a continual dullness in my head, a tightness across my chest, a weight over my eyes, which were weak, watery, and very painful. My nostrils were constantly obstructed with a pouring fluid. That frequent sneezing, hoarseness of my voice, often attended with a fullness of my throat, great soreness, and a continual dropping. Dr. Von Eisenberg has cured me of all these disagreeable sufferings. I may, indeed, say that I feel a new life. The treatment of Dr. Von Eisenberg is as skillful as it is successful. It is in my opinion impossible to overrate the benefit I have received at his hands. I heartily recommend any one suffering like myself to place themselves under Dr. Von Eisenberg's care, with a certainty of being speedily cured.

HARLEM, July 30, 1863.

I have been deaf for over TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, and Dr. VON EISENBERG operated on both of my ears without the slightest pain—a thing that I could not believe could be done. I now hear well, and feel as I never felt for the last twenty years. The dexterity and skill with which the operation was performed evince the highest practical ability. I hear perfectly. It is now over a month since the operation, and I continue to feel as well as ever.

WILLIAM LIDDLE,
Harlem, 126th-st., between 2d and 3d avs.

No. 134 ALLEN-ST., NEW-YORK, Feb. 9, 1863.

I have been completely deaf in one ear, and partially so in the other, for above seventeen years, with a disagreeable discharge from both ears, combined with continual rumbling noise in the head, for which I have been treated by a most eminent practitioner in the City without the slightest relief.

I consulted Dr. Von Eisenberg, but I must candidly say that I had no faith in his success when I did so. It is, therefore, due to Dr. Von Eisenberg to acknowledge that I am entirely cured; also, that he displayed that skill and knowledge which have procured for him such an unrivaled reputation. As I have had an opportunity of comparing his mode of treatment with that of others, I can truly state that it is not only superior, but the principles which direct his mode of restoring the hearing are, in my opinion, certain.

JOHN TAYLOR.

NEW-YORK, July 19, 1862.

This certifies that my mother has been for some time afflicted with partial deafness, suffering from pain, and rumbling noises in the head, together with other indications of a total loss of hearing. Dr. Von Eisenberg removed from her ears a great quantity of matter, together with coagulated blood, relieving her instantaneously, and all without pain. It is with grateful thanks that I give this testimony to his skill.

CHRONIC CATARRH CURED.
READ.

NEW-YORK, March 20, 1863.

"This is to certify, that I have suffered from very severe CHRONIC CATARRH, with a dull heaviness in the head. I felt my nose completely stopped up accompanied by continual soreness of the throat, the chills stealing over me with occasional hot flushes, a great tightness of the chest and pain, so much so, that every one thought it was consumption. Having heard of the great cures performed by Dr. Von Eisenberg, I consulted him with but little hope of a cure. I am now happy to be enabled to add my testimonial to the great number already in the Doctor's possession, as to his scientific and successful mode of treatment, as he has shown in my case that skill and knowledge which have procured for him so great a reputation. I am so entirely restored to perfect health that I do most sincerely recommend all sufferers from CHRONIC CATARRH and SORE THROAT to apply at once to Dr. Von Eisenberg with a certainty of being cured."

We have learned to be astonished at nothing. Years of experience and a correspondence extending throughout all nationalities of the habitable globe have turned theories into facts, and established a basis from which we need not err. We are not surprised at such facts as the following—although the persons who write them are. We know the persons and circumstances, hence feel at liberty to indorse their statements:

"NEW-BEDFORD, Mass., Nov. 24, 1863.

DEAR SIR: I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicine failed to relieve me. While visiting some friends in New-York who were using Plantation Bitters, they prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wine-glassful after dinner. Feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I have not done for years. I feel like another being; my appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters.

Respectfully, JUDITH RUSSELL."

"REEDSBURY, Wis., Sept. 16, 1863.

"* * * I have been in the army hospital for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * * *

C. A. FLAUTE."

The following is from the Manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

"HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH-ST., NEW-YORK, Aug. 2, 1863.

DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well.

Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

"* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, New-York."

"* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.

Thy friend,
ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

"* * * I have been a great sufferer from Dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. J. S. CATHORN,

"* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D.C."

"* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. D. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, Ohio."

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, No. 254 Broadway."

&c., &c., &c., &c., &c.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly Pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our log-cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our United States stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel-plate side labels.

PIQUE:
A TALE OF THE ENGLISH ARISTOCRACY.
To-day the FOURTH EDITION is ready.
That you may judge a little of its merit and the hold it has had upon the reading public, let me give a few facts.
Thirteen years ago this novel was first published in London, and up to the last year has had a regular remunerating sale.
Four books a day is the average number published in London, so that only great books live beyond the short time that they are brought before the public by advertising and reviewing. The next novelty crowds them out of sight.
PIQUE has lived on, and our reading public enjoy it so much that it will have a great run here.

SUBSCRIPTION BOOKS OPENED WITH
Messrs. SCHUCHARDT & GEBHARD, Bankers,
No. 21 Nassau-st., New-York.

The Chicago and Great Eastern Railway Company now offer for sale one million one hundred thousand dollars of their first mortgage bonds, in sums of one thousand dollars each, maturing in thirty years, bearing interest at the rate of Seven per cent. per annum, payable in the City of New-York, on the first days of April and October, in each year.

These bonds are secured by a first and only Mortgage on the property, income and franchises of the Railway Company, executed to Frederick Schuchardt and Henry Morgan, of the City of New-York, Trustees.

The remaining nine hundred thousand dollars of the Bonds are set apart and remain in the hands of the said Trustees, for the purpose of being exchanged for the indebtedness of the Chicago and Cincinnati Railroad Company, running from La Crosse to Logansport; this effected, the $2,000,000 will form a First and only Mortgage on a line of road 110 miles in length, extending from Chicago to Logansport, where it connects with the Cincinnati and Chicago Air-line Railroad, forming the shortest line by 40 miles, between Chicago and Cincinnati, and by 36 miles the shortest line between Louisville and Chicago.

It will also open, in connection with roads now in operation, entirely new and very direct lines from Chicago to New-York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and all Eastern cities. The distance between Chicago and New-York by this route being shorter than by either of the existing lines via Dunkirk or Buffalo.

The road is now under contract, and the most strenuous efforts are being made to have it open for traffic during the Summer of 1864.

The interest on the Bonds maturing during the progress of the work has been provided for, and will remain on deposit with the Bankers of the Company, Messrs SCHUCHARDT & GEBHARD, No. 21 Nassau-st., to whom the Company refer for further particulars, and where subscription books for this loan have been opened.

PROPOSALS will be received at the Navy Department until the 3d day of March, 1864, for raising or wrecking and removing the materials, and delivering at the United States Navy-yard, Gosport, Va., the wrecks of the following ships, viz.:

Frigates Cumberland and Congress, at Newport News, and Merrimac, near Craney Island.

The small steamer Whitehall, at Old Point.

Frigates Raritan and Columbia, and Line-of-battle ships Pennsylvania, Delaware and Columbus, in the vicinity of the Navy-yard.

Bidders for this contract will take into consideration that the Government requires the frigate Cumberland, and whatever may be on board of her, either public or private property, to be delivered at the Navy-yard, Gosport, Virginia, or at any other convenient place which the Government may designate, without any further mutilation than may be absolutely necessary to raise her.

It will be required by the Government that the contractors commence as soon as practicable on the Cumberland and not to engage or commence on any other wreck, without permission from the Government, until she is disposed of.

The Government will also claim the right of designating the order in which, after the Cumberland, the wrecks are to be raised; also to determine whether a wreck shall be blasted or raised whole.

No wreck will be considered removed while any portion of keel or floor timbers remains.

All the wrecks, as well as fragments of timber and other material (which may be the result of blasting,) must be deposited at the Navy-yard at such place or places as the Commandant may designate. And such property, after having been received by the Commandant, shall be considered in charge of the United States Government until disposed of agreeably to the specifications of the contract to be made.

The offer must be accompanied by the guarantee of responsible parties that the contract will be executed if awarded. The department reserves the right to reject all bids of parties who have not the proper means provided for executing the work, and of annulling the contract if the work is not executed in due proportion to the time fixed for completion. The proposition must also state the time required to do the work.

Proposals will be marked, "Proposals for raising wrecks at Norfolk," &c., so as to prevent them from being opened with other letters.

TO-NIGHT AND EVERY NIGHT,
MR. AND MRS. W. J. FLORENCE,

THE TICKET-OF-LEAVE MAN.
THE LONDON TIMES,
speaking of this great moral drama, mentions a fact to which the Provincial Press of Great Britain and Ireland has given confirmation.
"A clerk who absconded from Liverpool with £2,500, the property of his employers, and after visiting many places, arrived at Birmingham, at about 5 o'clock; and, after taking some refreshment, he went to the theatre to while away an hour. As it happened, the piece which was being performed on the occasion of his visit was
THE TICKET-OF-LEAVE MAN,
and the guilty man seems to have drawn a moral from the representation, for when the scene in which the interview between Hawkshaw, the detective, and the 'Ticket-of-leave man' took place, Parker, the clerk, was so affected that he went out of the theatre, got three envelopes, and sent £1,500 back to his employers."
Oh! the prophetic vision of Shakespeare:
"I have heard
That guilty creatures sitting at a play,
Have by the very cunning of the scene
Been struck so to the soul, that presently,
They have proclaimed their malefaction."
Doors open at 6¾; commence at 7¼; close at 10¾.

THE TAX RAIDS.

120 Banks and Insurance Companies.

Forced and Voluntary Payments.

THE WHOLE AMOUNT COLLECTED.

The annexed statement, compiled from the books of Mr. John Murphy, the Receiver of Taxes, shows the entire payments of taxes made by and collected from all the different banks and insurance companies in the City. Where payments were made voluntarily and without objection, no remark is attached, but where payments were made voluntarily and accompanied with a protest, the word "protest" clearly shows, and the forcible collections by Marshal Keane are also indicated. The date of each payment is also noted. To November, it will be observed, a discount was allowed on payments. During November payments were made at par, and all the late payments included an additional item of interest as a penalty for neglect to step up to Mr. Murphy's office and settle before Dec. 1.

DEAFNESS

NOISES IN THE HEAD,
Diseases of the Eye, Ear & Throat,
CATARRH CURED
BY
Dr. VON EISENBERG,
AT HIS CONSULTING ROOMS,

DEAFNESS AND CATARRH.

No. 23 Forsyth-st., New-York, Oct. 1, 1863.

Dr. Von Eisenberg:

Dear Sir: Without recapitulating the numerous benefits I have received through your wonderful cure of the deafness I have labored under many years, the blessings I enjoy will convince the most skeptical.

I have tried many aurists, in Europe and America, without success. I was still deaf as a post.

Three years ago I entered your office, underwent one operation, hoping, yet doubting, I should receive any relief, but was agreeably disappointed in finding the genius of your profession.

The innate skill you possess cured my deafness in one almost painless operation.

The joy I experienced was indescribable; 'twas a new life to me.

My hearing is perfect to this day.

I strongly advise all who are suffering under a difficulty of hearing, or total deafness, to consult you immediately, as I also personally recommend all who apply to me. The numerous calls trespass on my time and patience, yet, remembering my own long, weary affliction, causes me to pity them.

This is not written to advertise your well-known, unrivaled reputation—that would be peurile; but as a measure of precaution, to induce all to call on you at once, without troubling me; yet I do not refuse to see any one who comes to me. This is the only way I can show my gratitude.

I also call the attention of those who are suffering from Catarrh, which disease I have labored under one year or more.

I experienced difficulty in breathing, langour, heaviness over the eyes, a sense of tightness on the brain, and copious expectorations of a hard and viscid nature. Accompanying this is a "polypus," quite filling the right nostril. On the 25th ult. you operated on both, killing the polypus, which is gradually passing away, and giving me great relief from the Catarrh. One more operation will effectually cure.

This testimonial brings with it my unalloyed and grateful thanks, with but a poor delineation of your wondrous skill as an Aurist.

I am, Sir, yours very gratefully,
EDWARD TEMPLE HARRISON.

MISS MINA GEARY, the talented Vocalist, writes as follows:

Kendall & Co.:

Gentlemen: My hair, which has been very strong and abundant, commenced falling out by the handsfull, so much so that I would soon have been left without any, but that I was fortunately recommended to try your AMBOLINE, and I have much pleasure in stating that, after using two bottles of it, my hair quite ceased falling out, and is now getting as strong and heavy as could be desired.

MINA GEARY,
Dec. 23, 1863. No. 52 West 44th-st., New-York.

KENDALL'S AMBOLINE

Is a stimulating extract of flowers, roots and herbs, for the growth, beauty and permanent vigor of the hair. It has been used in thousands of cases where the hair was coming out in handsfull, and has never failed to arrest its decay and promote a healthy growth.

It also prevents the hair from turning prematurely gray, causes it to grow on bald heads, eradicates dandruff, cures diseases of the scalp, is a preventive of nervous headache, and as a dressing, imparts health and pleasantness to the head.

Put up in a box containing 2 bottles, one to be used at night as a restorative, the other for morning use as a dressing. Price $1 per box.

Dr. H. H. Sterling, No. 493 Broadway, New-York:

Dear Sir: Feeling it to be a duty which I owe to you and the world, I address you for the purpose of stating some facts with reference to your AMBROSIA. About one year ago my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time there was but little of it left on my head, and that was thin and short. Feeling greatly mortified at its loss and the appearance of my head, I tried various preparations advertised to restore lost hair, &c.; but without avail, until at last my attention was called to an advertisement of your AMBROSIA, with a cut from a photograph from life of Mrs. L. A. Brown. I then determined to try it faithfully, and commenced its use at once, and the result could not have been more satisfactory. My hair is now extremely thick, being an entirely new crop, and when let down reaches below my waist, and is still growing rapidly.

Attributing this gratifying and wonderful result solely to the use of your AMBROSIA, I beg to hand you this letter, with privilege to use it as you may please, and also offer you the use of my photograph, showing the remarkable effect of your preparation on my hair.

Very respectfully and gratefully, yours, &c.,

These Bitters

READ WHO SAYS SO!

From Rev. Levi G. Beck, Pastor of the Baptist Meeting, Pemberton, N. J., formerly of the North Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

* * * * * * * * * *

I have known Hoofland's German Bitters favorably for a number of years. I have used them in my own family and have been so pleased with their effects that I was induced to recommend them to many others, and know that they have operated in a strikingly beneficial manner. I take great pleasure in thus publicly proclaiming this fact, and calling the attention of those afflicted with the diseases for which they are recommended, to these Bitters, knowing from experience that my recommendation will be sustained. I do this more cheerfully as Hoofland's Bitters is intended to benefit the afflicted, and is "not a rum drink." Yours truly,

LEVI G. BECK.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this City, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
8th, below Coates-st., Philadelphia.

From Rev. Warren Randolph, Pastor of Baptist Church Germantown, Penn.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: Personal experience enables me to say that I regard the German Bitters prepared by you as a most excellent medicine. In cases of severe cold and general debility I have been greatly benefitted by the use of the Bitters, and doubt not they will produce similar effects in others.

Yours, truly, WARREN RANDOLPH,
Germantown, Penn.

From Rev. J. H. Turner, Pastor of Hedding M. E. Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: Having used your German Bitters in my family frequently, I am prepared to say that it has been of great service. I believe that in most cases of general debility of the system it is the safest and most valuable remedy of which I have any knowledge.

Yours, respectfully. J. H. TURNER.
No. 726 North 19th-st.

From Rev. J. M. Lyons, formerly Pastor of the Columbus (N. J.) and Milestown (Penn.) Baptist Churches. New-Rochelle, N. Y.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it a pleasure thus, of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the German Bitters. Some years since, being much afflicted with Dyspepsia, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often recommended them to persons enfeebled by that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to their great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it to be a tonic that cannot be surpassed. J. M. LYONS.

From Rev. Thomas Winter, Pastor of Roxborough Baptist Church.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters. I did so, and have experienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been very materially benefitted. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.

Respectfully yours,
T. WINTER, Roxborough, Penn.

From Rev. J. S. Herman, of the German Reformed Church, Kutztown, Berks County, Penn.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Respected Sir: I have been troubled with Dyspepsia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofland's Bitters. I am very much improved in health, after having taken five bottles.

Yours, with respect,
J. S. HERMAN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
CURES SECRET DISEASES

in all their stages, at little Expense; little or no change of Diet; no inconvenience, AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes frequent desire and gives strength to Urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling POISONOUS, DISEASED AND WORN-OUT MATTER.

Thousands upon thousands who have been the

VICTIMS OF QUACKS,

and who have paid HEAVY FEES to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "Poison" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in an aggravated form, and,

PERHAPS, AFTER MARRIAGE.

FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA.
SYPHILIS.

This is an affection of the blood, and attacks the sexual organs, linings of the nose, ears, throat, windpipe and other mucus surfaces, making its appearance in the form of ulcers. Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and removes all scaly eruptions of the skin, giving to the complexion a clear and healthy color. It being prepared expressly for this class of complaints, its blood-purifying properties are preserved to a greater extent than any other preparation of sarsaparilla.
